Experience

July 2023 up to present

Freelance

Frontend Web Developer

I create websites for clients using HTML, CSS, Bootstrap, Tailwind, and JavaScript. Currently, I'm learning React JS and Node JS to enhance my skills further.

October 2022 - February 2023

Century Properties

International Marketing Officer

As a member of the international marketing team, I was sent to different countries to reach out to Filipinos and other nationalities to raise awareness regarding investment opportunities in Philippine properties. I enable and assist clients in purchasing, selling, and leasing properties in the Philippines.

Apart from traditional methods, I utilize digital marketing across platforms like Facebook, YouTube, Instagram, and TikTok to promote our available properties effectively.

April 2022 - May 2022

Telecrew Outsourcing

Real Estate Virtual Assistant

I conducted cold calling, data mining, appointment setting, and lead generation. With the first client, I generated leads by cold calling homeowners interested in selling their properties and I facilitate appointments with real estate brokers. For the second client, I collect data from websites where contractors sign up for leads. I reached out to these contractors and offer a monthly service to connect them with potential clients.

January 2020 - January 2021

Trace Alarm and Security System Inc.

Alarm and Security System Consultant

I was responsible for facilitating both commercial and residential customers with their questions about CCTV, alarm systems, and monitoring services. This includes conducting on-site visits and offering price quotes to our clients.

June 2012 - October 2014

Acquire Asia Pacific

Outbound/Inbound Call Center Associate

I have managed outbound and inbound sales, which includes switching accounts, credit card pulling, and upselling.

In outbound calls, I cold call clients and offer services that will lead them to switching from their current telecom provider to our company.

In inbound calls, I handle inquiries and encourage clients to switch from their current telecom provider to our company, while also looking for chances to upsell to our existing clients.

May 2011 - May 2012

Quantus Global Solutions

Outbound Call Center Associate

My tasks involve scheduling appointments, and facilitating the transfer of electricity and gas accounts.

I provide clients with cost-effective electricity and gas rates, encouraging them to switch to our services. Additionally, I arrange appointments with specialists to oversee the switching process.

January 2010 - May 2011

Acellus Inc.

Outbound Call Center Associate

I conducted scheduling appointments, and transitioning alarm system services.

I provide clients with more affordable monthly rates and additional services, encouraging them to switch from their current alarm system provider to ours. I also coordinate appointments with our technicians to oversee the switching process.
